THE FAIR BRINGS LARGE THRONGS EACH DAY

COURT LASTS TWO DAYS

Heavy Penalty For Tracy Smith, the Bradford Violator of the Woner Law.

Judge Bouton meted out the first sentence imposed under the Woner prohibition enforcement act, the victim being Tracy Smith, proprietor of the Campbell House at Mt. Jewett. Smith pleaded guilty to the illegal sale of whisky, and was sentenced to pay a fine of $500 and serve six months in jail.

The judge also revoked Smith's license.

A preliminary injunction restraining Lawrence G. Dana and Anna W. Palmer, owners of the oil rights on the Bradford City poor farm, from drilling any more wells on the farm until the legal limit of such drilling shall have been determined and from shutting off the farm's supply of gas, was granted by Judge Joseph W. Bouton at the opening session of the September term of civil court Monday.

The order is returnable here at 10 o'clock in the morning of September 28. Col. E. P. Shoonmaker, city solicitor, represented the city of Bradford in court, and W. E. Burdick appeared as attorney for the defendants.

Women jurors served Monday for the first time in the history of McKean county. The honor of being the first McKean county woman chosen for jury duty went to Miss Theresa Olson, a music teacher of Ludlow. The second woman juror was Mrs. Orton Eastman, of Wetmore township, Kane. Both served on a jury called to return verdicts in two cases against Sargent township, in which settlements previously had been agreed upon by the contending parties. Accordingly the jury's finding in each case was merely a matter of form.

In one case, that of Agnes and Thomas R. Harris against the township of Sargent, $648 was awarded the plaintiffs, in accordance with agreement. In the other, that of Mary Minerva Morrow, against the same township, the verdict amounted to $4,351.50.

Of the 23 jurors in attendance at the present term, only four are women, many of the women drawn for service having previously been excused.

Most of the cases on the civil calendar were continued that disposition being made of 24 actions. Only five were reported ready for trial, and two more were passed and may be tried before he term ends.

The two cases temporarily passed were those of Henry Southard, now for use of L. S. Letson, vs. Flora Shively, administratrix; and Fred E. Ellis vs. George W. Ellis.

The court granted a motion for vacation of the Coffee Run road between Willow Creek and Sugar Run, a distance of about nine miles, and named C. M. Colegrove, Abram Keery and H. C. Burkhaus as viewers.

A special term of civil court was ordered Tuesday for November 28, 1921. The first 30 cases noted will go on the list. The watch book is to close on November 1.

CLARION RIVER PROJECT BEFORE KANE MEN.

Kane, Sept. 12.—A group of Kane business have been invited to attend a dinner at the New Thompson Monday, at which time Hon. Byron R. Newton, representing H. D. Wallbridge & Co. of New York, will be present and explain to the guests the aims and extent of the Clarion River Project for the generating of electric power. Mr. Newton has been a newspaper man well known in journalistic circles throughout the country, and also held governmental positions of importance. His talk is sure to be interesting.

J. F. Addonizio, another representative of the project who has been in Kane for several days, will also be present at the dinner, which has been arranged by a local committee consisting of John Willis, J. E. Henrotta, W. H. Bunce, F. E. Ulf and R. J. Shar.

MRS. LEWIS RAYMER.

Mrs. Lewis Raymer died Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at her home on South street, of complications of diseases.

Mrs. Raymer was 72 years old, and has always been a resident of Smethport.

Mrs. Raymer was a woman of lovely traits who endeared herself to all. She was a noble helpmate and indulgent mother, the passing away of whom her home has suffered a crushing bereavement.

Mrs. Raymer was a member of the Baptist Church.

Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon. Interment in Rose Hill Cemetery.

She is survived by her husband, Lewis Raymer, and two children, Ward and Octavia Raymer, both of this place; also two sisters, Mrs. Violeta Burdick, of Bettila, and Mrs. Chester Rice, of Cohocton, N. Y.; three brothers, Mr. Delos Gallup, Avoca, N. Y.; Mr. Leander Gallup and Dorton Gallup, both of Port Allegany.

HANS A. BENSON

He was born at Colegrove, Pa., March 11, 1897, and spent the greater part of his life in that place. He made his home in Olean with his brother, H. E. Benson, for two years, while employed at the P. R. R. shops and at the Vacuum Oil Company.

He served with Co. I on the Mexican border and in the World War. He was wounded September 29, 1918, and returned to this country February 1, 1919. He had been in poor health for some time, due to injuries received while at the front. He was a sergeant.

He leaves surviving, his widow, Mrs. Norma E. Benson; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Benson, of Colegrove, Pa.; five brothers, Edward and Francis, of Olean; Leonard, of Crosby, Pa., and Donald and Burnell, of Colegrove; and two sisters, Mrs. O. W. Hogsted, of Hollywood, Cal., and Mrs. H. W. Farmer, of Chicago, Ill.

TWO GOING TO AMERICAN LEGION STATE CONVENTION.

Doctor Ostrander and E. G. Potter, members of Bucktail Post, are expected to attend the Pennsylvania state convention of American Legion at Pittsburgh on September 22, 23 and 24.

Frank Fay, E. G. Potter and Paul Hallstrom, the committee arranging for the celebration of Armistice Day, November 11, have not decided upon the principal speaker, but are endeavoring to secure one of national prominence.

IMPROMPTU GAME PLAYED.

An impromptu baseball game was staged at the Community Club Grounds at East Smethport between Smethport and East Smethport last Sunday, which resulted in favor of the latter aggregation.

The score was 4 to 3.

The game went 10 innings, and was interesting to the small crowd which gathered.

Tommy Clark pitched for Smethport, and J. Walker was on the mound for East Smethport. Both twirled splendid ball, but the team behind the latter put forth the necessary punch and untied the score in the 10th inning.

The line-up of Smethport was: Hull, c.; Clark, p.; P. Denning, 1b; Kohn, 2b; Tull, ss.; Provin, 3b; Pickersgill, lf.; O'Brien, cf.; Petruzzi, rf.

For East Smethport: Peeler, c.; J. Walker, p.; McDermott, 1b; Walker, 2b; B. Hull, ss.; Cooper, 3b; H. Denning, lf.; McKenna, cf.; Stanton, rf.

Each day of the McKean county fair, now in progress, games are being played at 4 p. m. The opponents of the East Smethport team on each of the days are: Tuesday, Johnsonburg; Wednesday, Rixford; Thursday, Bradford I. O. O. F., and Friday, Port Allegany. Some of the Smethport players are in the line-up.

URGE VOTERS TO DECIDE FOR CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION

Bradford, Pa., Sept. 12, 1921.
To the Voters of the County of McKean:

At the primary election in Pennsylvania to be held next Tuesday, September 20, 1921, the question of whether or not we will have a constitutional convention for the purpoe of preparing a new constitution, will be submitted to the voters.

The present constitution was adopted in 1873, almost 50 years ago, and the many changes during the time make it almost necessary for a new constitution.

Among the most important features of a new constitution will be matters vitally affecting the highways of the commonwealth. The "Good Roads Association" of McKean county calls your attention to the importance of your voting in favor of a constitutional convention and solicits your co-operation in putting McKean county on record with a big vote in favor of such a convention.

Do you realize that already in this county we have completed and under contract 46½ miles of improved primary highway, as follows:

Smethport to Rew Hill, 10 miles; Kane to Mt. Jewett, 12½ miles; Bradford to Big Shanty Hill 3 miles; Bradford to State Line, 2 miles; Smethport to Kings Corners, 2 miles; Port Allegany toward Smethport, 3½ miles; Rew Hill toward Bradford, 1½ miles; Smethport to Kasson, 6 miles.

That this has cost two million, two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, of which the state has paid one-half million of dollars?

What we want and with your support, can secure almost entirely at the expense of the state, 44 additional miles of such roads, enough to complete the primary systems and connect Kane with Ludlow to Warren county line, 16½ miles; Farmers Valley through Port Allegany to Potter county line, 15 miles, and Kasson to Mt. Jewett, 9 miles. Do you realize this?

All of this improvement can take place during the immediate future only by changes in our constitution.

The officers of the Good Roads Association, with the active and loyal support of its members and the citizens of this county, have been laboring faithfully and earnestly to bring about the completion of this plan of highway construction in McKean county, and now that complete success seems almost in sight, we must not fail.

We appeal personally for your support in favor of a constitutional convention—failure of McKean county voters to support this measure, in view of its effect on our highway plans, will cause us to think that the people of the county do not appreciate the work we have done—let the slogan be "Constitutional convention more good roads."

Everything done by such constitutional convention, new form of constitution or change, must be published in the newspapers, copies furnished to every elector asking for the same, and finally must be submitted to the vote of the people in the fall of 1922, so that every chance is given to each elector in the commonwealth to express his or her approval or disapproval as to the final adoption of a new constitution.

There are two separate things for each voter to do—first, vote on the question of a convention; second, vote for two delegates, because the question of whether or not a convention is to be held will be determined by the vote of the entire state, and even should a majority of McKean county voters be against the convention, a majority throughout the state may favor it, and hence the necessity for representative delegates.

This entire procedure for the preparation of a new constitution is provided for by an Act of the Legislature of Pennsylvania, passed the 27th day of April, 1921.

"Get out the vote for the constitutional convention" and thereby show your active support for "Good Roads," and your earnest approval of what this association has already done for McKean county.

Sincerely yours
Good Roads Association
of McKean County,
By A. D. Burns, President.

HIGH SCHOOL TO PLAY COUDERSPORT FOOTBALL TEAM

Smethport High School football team will open its season here on Saturday, September 24, with the Coudersport High School as its opponents.

The Coudersport crowd have a good team, it is said, and some real rough-and-tumble will likely ensue.

Scrimmage was indulged in for the first time on Monday evening. Some fast hard work was done.

No announcement of the probable line-up has yet been made, as all the candidates are on their toes and it is difficult to pick the best.

HUNGERFORD-TERRY.

A very pretty wedding occurred Monday morning at 7 o'clock at the Catholic parsonage, when Bernice Terry, daughter of Mrs. Mary Terry, of Mill street, became the bride of Russell Hungerford, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Hungerford, of this place.

Rev. P. J. Donahue performed the ceremony.

Miss Terry is a well known and popular young lady, who has held a position in the court house for some time.

Mr. Hungerford is an estimable young man, who holds a position as inspector on the state highway.

The Miner extends its best wishes together with a host of friends.

RT. REV. OVERS BRINGS AN INTERESTING MESSAGE.

Rt. Rev. Walter H. Overs, Bishop of Liberia, who always brings an interesting message to Smethport concerning his work in Africa, and the far-reaching field of endeavor there, preached in St. Luke's Episcopal Church here last Sunday.

His text was: "You Have a Charge to Keep."

He told of the duty of the civilized nations toward the untutored savage, and of the wonderful work that was being done toward regenerating those who were found amid almost impassible forests.

Rt. Rev. Overs will start for the African interior soon after his return to his diocese. Some time ago he discovered a tribe of savages to the number of 100,000.

KINDNESS LEADS MR. B. T. GARLICK INTO TROUBLE.

Anxious to assist an autoist he thought was in trouble, B. T. Garlick, of Smethport, reversed his car and backed over a small embankment near the farm of Claude Irons, at Kasson, last Thursday, and although his car turned completely upside down, he was uninjured.

Mr. Garlick was on his way home from Erie. He saw a large touring car stopped in the road, and it was when he started to go back to help, that he turned turtle.

His car is a coupe, but neither the windows nor the top were crushed. He opened the door, and got out topsy-turvey.

COMING HERE FROM BRADFORD BY WAY MINARD RUN.

The contractors on highway route No. 95 from Smethport to the top of Rew Hill completed the link at Herzog Corners on Cole Creek at noon Tuesday and finished the road at the top of Rew Hill Wednesday. This completely blockaded the road until a temporary bridge is constructed across the new road. The crossing was put in place so that the dirt road was used on Wednesday.

People driving in the direction of Smethport on Tuesday were advised to go by the way of Minard run, otherwise they would be unable to get through.

This work completes the ten-mile stretch of road from Smethport to the top of Rew Hill, and the new highway will be thrown open to public use three weeks from Wednesday, or on October 5th.

The State Highway Department expects to have the road completed from the top of Rew Hill toward Bradford not later than November 1st, and when this is accomplished there will be a hard surfaced highway connecting the county seat with Bradford, a distance of 18 miles.

STRIKE AMONG LABORERS WORKING ON ROAD HERE.

Forty-five laborers, mostly foreigners, quit work last Friday on the Smethport-Kasson road job and struck for 35 cents an hour, instead the 30 cents an hour they were being paid.

Frank L. Cohen & Company, the contractor, states that he has replaced the strikers by 80 men from various towns, and could get many more from Buffalo if necessary.

The action of the men failed to hold up the work at all and rapid progress is being made. The entire stretch is not expected to be completed this year unless the weather during the winter months permits.

POLICE ALERT DURING THE FAIR FOR BOOTLEGGERS.

Bootleggers who attempt to dispense their wares during the fair will have to be very careful in view of the police on guard against them.

Three members of the state police arrived on Tuesday in full uniform, are going to do various policing duties.

Several extra county men are assisting County Detective Allison.

GOLF CLUB BEING ORGANIZED BY LOCAL MEN.

A golf club is being organized by local men, there being about 75 who have declared themselves favorable to membership.

The links will be situated in or near town, several sites now being considered.

E. E. Drake, who is an ardent golf enthusiast, is one of the organizers and it is expected that the club will be formed within a very short time, and the links purchased and laid out so as to be ready for use by next spring.

Golf being an exercise that is most beneficial without the strenuousness which accompanies most sports, is a favorite pastime among business men, and the club plan should interest many here.

FOOTBALL MOVE WILL PROBABLY BE UNSUCCESSFUL.

None but a few live wire citizens appeared last Thursday evening at the Rose House to attend the announced meeting to put a football team in the field this year to represent Smethport.

A few of the men who declared that they would back the team financially, and a few of the real enthusiasts who desired to get the movement under way quickly were present, but because of the lack of interest as shown by the poor attendance, nothing could be done.

Apparently unless some additional attempt is made with better co-operation, there will be no use made of the excellent football material here.

The McKean County Fair is on.

As the Miner goes to press today — Wednesday — vast throngs are swarming the grounds having come from all points in the county to be present at this one big event at the county seat.

Without being trite, one can safely say that the fair this year, with Harry Copping shows arrayed in a wonderful midway, is far bigger and better than it has been in many years, and cannot fail to wind up in a whirl of success.

Today and Thursday are the feature days of the fair. Persons from Bradford, Kane, Olean and all other surrounding towns are here in mass formation, and flivver and limousine are still bringing them to swell the attendance figures.

Everyone is on the move with plenty to amuse themselves with.

The first races take place at 2 p. m. The racing program for Wednesday, Thursday and Friday is as follows:

Wednesday: 2:30 pace, purse $300; 2:20 trot, purse $300. Thursday: 2:25 pace, purse $300; 2:20 trot, purse $300. Friday: 2:22 pace, purse $300; 2:24 trot, purse $300.

Several motorcycle races are on the program instead of the running horse races, which had been planned. Some good, speedy contests between the machines are certain.

Lovers of horse racing will also likely have their fancy well satisfied, as there is said to be a fine assortment of horseflesh in the paddocks.

Leon's ponies and the Aerial Fausts are daily amusing the crowds in front of the grand stand, so that there are no dull moments between the races.

The livestock judging contest this morning created intense interest among the boys and girls. This is the Farm Bureau's feature, and it was put across in good style. The first prize and second prize are donations from two of the best farms hereabouts, and are in the form of picked livestock.

Numerous exhibits and entries for the long list of premiums offered are seen in the various spaces alloted to them. Local and out-of-town business men are represented by these, and all go to make an interest of wider scope, and really are the basis of a fair.

The Port Allegany Band is furnishing the music, and allow no opportunity to pass without the appropriate tunes.

The livestock parade at 1 o'clock Thursday is another feature, when the finest specimens of the county's stock will be paraded before admiring eyes.

If Tuesday's attendance can be taken as an indication, then the fair will surely go over the top tremendously. Because on that day and night practically all the amusements were moving from the afternoon until the moon had sunk low around midnight.

The new feature—the night fair—is turning out far in excess of the Fair Association's expectations. Electric lights—with which some little difficulty was encountered at first—are now in place, and the entire field is brilliantly illuminated. This adds greatly to the attractiveness of the many booths and amusements, which have been heavily patronized.

Too much cannot be said of the fine appearance of the Harry Copping Carnival, which arrived in town Sunday, threw up their tents and paraphernalia with the speed of finished show people and were ready for business in no time. Comment, always favorable, has been heard concerning the carnival from all sides, everyone being pleased that the midway of the fair should be of such high-class nature. Fifteen cars are required to move this carnival, which gives an idea of its size.

East Smethport, with a sprinkling of players from Smethport, beat the Johnsonburg team on Tuesday afternoon by the score of 6 to 5. The play was fast and interesting to those patrons of the fair who wished to see some baseball by way of diversion. These games take place each afternoon at 4 p. m.

Don't drink too much pink lemonade.

Camels are made for Men who Think for Themselves

Such folks know real quality—and DEMAND it.

They prefer Camels because Camels give them the smoothest, mellowest smoke they can buy—because they love the mild, rich flavor of choicest tobaccos, perfectly blended—and because Camels leave NO CIGARETTY AFTERTASTE.

Like every man who does his own thinking, you want fine tobacco in your cigarettes. You'll find it in Camels.

And, mind you, no flashy package just for show. No extra wrappers! No costly frills! These things don't improve the smoke any more than premiums or coupons.

But QUALITY! Listen! That's CAMELS!

A CALL.

To the Women of Pennsylvania:

The undersigned, representing the three great organized bodies of women participating in the political thought and action in this state—the Republican Woman's Committee, the Democratic Woman's Committee and the League of Women Voters—hereby formally and jointly call on all the women of Pennsylvania to support by their votes the question of holding a constitutional convention. We urge in the strongest possible terms that all the women, irrespective of their partisan affiliations, co-operate to insure the success of the movement for a constitutional convention. We also urge that they exercise the utmost care to see that delegates are sent to this convention who are properly qualified both by experience and capacity to sit in the deliberations of that high convention.

The present constitution was written in 1873, almost half a century ago. Much has happened in the social economic and political life of Pennsylvania since then. As an indication of how far short our present constitution falls of the requirements of these later days the commission on constitutional revision, after a long and deliberate study of the question, recommended 135 changes. These changes are regarded as necessary so that the constitution may fit the needs of the present day and take into consideration also the needs of the future. A convention held at this time will make it possible for whatever revision is agreed upon by the convention and the people to be made by the end of 1922.

A constitutional convention, among other things, could pave the way for a speedy authorization of an efficient budget system for the commonwealth, a modern and scientific method of appropriating money to charities; the floating of bond issues for good roads and for re-forestation; the relieving of judges of all but their judicial duties, and thereby freeing them from the grip of politics; civil service for state employes; a revision of the income and inheritance tax laws, and a larger measure of "home rule" for cities.

The voters of Pennsylvania will decide the question of holding a convention on the same day as the primary election, September 20. To more fully participate in the constitutional convention election, you should be enrolled in the pary of your choice. If you are not enrolled, you can vote only on the quetion of holding the convention. If you are in favor of the convention you will, of course, want to vote for delegates, and therefore you should be enrolled as a member of one or the other of the parties.

This is one of the biggest and most important questions which the electorate of Pennsylvania have had to pass on in many years. We call on Pennsylvania women to go to the polls on September 20 and vote "Yes" for the convention. This is the first great opportunity the women of this state have had to take a thorough going part in the government and in the mechanism of government. In many respects it is up to the women to make good.

ANTI-SALOON OFFICERS FAVOR CONVENTION

Dr. Homer W. Tope, state superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, and Harry M. Chalfant, editor of the American Issue, official organ of the League, have repudiated the efforts of those attempting to represent the "drys" as being opposed to the holding of a Constitutional Convention. In opposing the convention for fear of danger to the prohibition cause, they say in a formal statement, "flavors of cowardice." Dr. Tope and Mr. Chalfant write that they are in favor of the convention.

The joint statement by these two well known "dry" leaders is as follows:

"While we are both personally favorable to the proposed Convention, we do not presume for one moment to speak for any other person connected with the League. Undoubtedly there are features of our present Constitution which ought to be revised. If in connection with that work the Convention should attempt to incorporate any provision detrimental to prohibition or without sufficient reason should propose to change any existing feature necessary for the proper enforcement of the law, it will then be time enough for our organization to get into the fight. We expect to have many friends in the Convention and we are confident there will be no danger of our great cause suffering at the hands of that body. To oppose the revision of the Constitution simply because the Convention charged with that task might propose something unfair to the cause we represent is not justifiable. If such a proposal should be made we can assure our friends that the Anti-Saloon League will not fail to fight it to the limit, but to oppose the Convention for fear that some one connected with it might antagonize prohibition would seem to us to savor of cowardice. Speaking broadly we feel that the individual questions involved in the revision of the Constitution should each be met by the Convention and settled on their own merit and that the many questions to be settled in such a Convention should not be denied the hearing simply because the friends of some particular issue might be forced to a fight on its behalf."

TEN ARGUMENTS FOR CONVENTION

1. Nearly fifty years have passed since the constitution was drafted.

2. The present constitution has been in operation fourteen years longer than its predecessor, though record breaking developments have marked the last ten years.

3. Revision would bring the constitution up to date; simplify conflicts inherent in frequent amendments; and lay a clean-cut foundation for the future.

4. Convention could authorize creation of efficient budget system for the handling of state finances.

5. Scientific method of appropriating state funds for charities is urgently demanded.

6. Reforestration and the extension of the system of good roads require consideration.

7. Judiciary could be freed of the grip of politics by relieving judges of political appointments.

8. Cities could receive a larger measure of home rule.

9. The Constitutional Revision Commission has thoroughly studied the subject and has recommended a total of 130 changes and additions in the fundamental law.

10. Only a convention could adequately handle the question of revising the constitution; separate amendments, to be passed through two successive Legislatures before being voted on by the people, would be impracticable.

RELIGION'S PART IN BIG WAR

To those disquieting souls who publicly lament that the average American lost what little religion he possessed during the trying days of 1917-18, Rev. Henry Russel Talbot, D. D., canon of the National Cathedral of Washington, D. C., makes answer. As senior chaplain of the embattled First Division, A. E. F., in the Argonne fighting, Dr. Talbot viewed a cross section of the country's manhood and found a religion that will puzzle and amaze the orthodox church-goer.

In his work, Dr. Talbot collected and examined the personal effects of men killed in battle. In ninety percent of them he found either a Bible, a scapular, a prayer book, a cross, a crucifix, or some other token which, he says in a letter to national headquarters of the American Legion, proved that religion was a real element in the men's lives. And in those days, the former chaplain continues, the First was not carrying a single article it did not consider essential.

Admitting that the average American is "uncommonly timid in the exercise of his religion," Dr. Talbot declares that "nevertheless it is there and needs only to be cultivated and intelligently used." He summarizes his refutation of the assertion that the American soldier was an irreligious person by the statement: "If a simplicity which is elemental; a trust which is childlike although it expresses itself in what is called 'chance' or 'luck'; a sense of reverence which is so profound that it is never fooled by cant; an honesty which, while it is apt to be communistic is so essential that shams don't last—if these are notes of religion, there was in the spiritual life of the Expeditionary Force something that was fine."

DAN CUPID WAS ON THE JOB

Nebraska Legion Man Won Bride From Home When They Met In France.

They met in France. He was a soldier, she a canteen worker. The romance culminated as only a romance could culminate in the marriage recently of Frank B. O'Connell, department adjutant of the American Legion of Nebraska, and Miss Rachel N. Blodgett of Orleans, Nebraska. The wedding was at Orleans and the "weds" are now domiciled at Lincoln.

O'Connell, during the summer of 1918, served at Le Mons, where he edited a soldier newspaper. Miss Blodgett was stationed there as a canteen worker with the Y. M. C. A. They had known each other as children, but not seriously. They met at Sable. Cupid did the rest.

On his return from France, O'Connell became active in Legion work. He was the first commander of the Lincoln post and has been adjutant of the department since its organization. He is widely known among the Cornhusker Legionnaires.

WAR BROUGHT WORK FOR HER

Maybe woman's place was in the home, but when America entered the World war, Miss Abbey N. Hurley, Fargo, N. D., was a clerk and stenographer in the district court of her county. Then the district clerk enlisted for service and Miss Hurley forsook the files and keys to help the deputy carry on the work. Then the deputy enlisted—and the little stenographer carried on the work alone while she broke in a new deputy. She did the task so well that she was named deputy clerk herself in October, 1919, a position which she now holds.

When the boys came marching home again, her brother, who had enlisted early in the State's infantry regiment, began forming a post of the American Legion and Miss Hurley started in to organize a unit of the Legion Women's auxiliary. Last May she was elected secretary treasurer of the North Dakota department of the auxiliary. She is, ah—twenty-one.

A Chicago woman told the court that her husband had kissed her so often that she had lost 44 pounds. But we believe she was lying, 'cause it simply isn't being done these days.

The principals in the Mt. Jewett biting case are going to take their troubles to court, and more than likely they'll both get bitten by some enterprising lawyer.

USED CARS

Now is the time to buy your used car. If you are mechanically inclined you have the winter season at your disposal in which to become acquainted with it, polish it up, equip it with the little features you would like your car to have and be ready when spring comes, to start a season's motoring with a knowledge of your car and pride in it's appearance. We have a few good, small used cars on hand. Will gladly demonstrate. Easy terms of payment.

1917 OVERLAND—FOUR CYLINDER touring car. Recently overhauled. Five good tires.

1918 CHALMERS touring car. Five cord tires, practically new.

KANE SUPERINTENDENT HINTS THAT WORK WAS HAMPERED.

Kane, Sept. 8.—Superintendent H. O. Dietrich, who for the past five years served as head of the local schools, yesterday sent his resignation to the board of education.

During an interview yesterday afternoon Mr. Dietrich briefly sketched his qualifications in school work and his reasons for resigning, as follows:

Due to some recent policies put into vogue he feels that he can no longer afford to sacrifice and therefore has sent his resignation to the board. In this resignation he says: "Educational administration is an expert piece of educational engineering and demands men with deep professional training and wide vision. Unless school executives are unhampered in initiative and professional efficiency policies, the schools and the children are going to suffer. Education must be recognized as a business and unless school executives are given the same privileges as an industry would concede to its chief executive education must become a secondary proposition. When economy as well as administrative efficiency are sacrificed, inefficiency must result. In such an instance a superintendency is reduced to that of a figure-head and no man of expert training, recognized ability and professional standing can afford to sacrifice his services. Consider this as my resignation from the superintendency of the Kane schools, effective september 16."

PROMINENT BRADFORD MAN DIES AFTER SHORT ILLNESS.

Bradford, Sept. 9.—Melvin G. Raub, for many years a prominent and popular resident of Bradford, died at his home, No. 162 East Main street, at 10:50 o'clock last night. Mr. Raub had been ill only a week, having suffered an attack of summer grip, followed by complications.

Mr. Raub was 61 years old and had lived in Bradford almost all his entire life. He was born in Franklinville, N. Y., October 17, 1856, the son of George W. and Julia Chase Raub. The family came to Bradford February 23, 1862, when Melvin G. Raub was 5 years old.

Throughout his long residence here, Mr. Raub was held in the highest esteem and affection by his fellow-citizens. He was active in fraternal circles, being a member of the four local Masonic bodies, Union Lodge, F. & A. M., Bradford Chapter, R. A. M., Bradford Council R. & S. M. M., and Trinity Commandery, Knights Templar, and of Ismalia Temple, Mystic Shrine, of Buffalo. He also was a member of Tuna Lodge, I. O. O. F., the Red Men, the Knights of Pythias, the K. O. T. M. He was record keeper of the K. O. T. M. for more than 20 years. He attended the First Baptist Church regularly, although not a member of that church.

McKEAN COUNTY DOING SOME GREAT ROAD WORK.

Kane, Sept. 9.—According to figures at hand McKean county is faring very well in the matter of improved roads when compared with other counties in the state. This county had a bond issue for good roads purposes which helped along the total. Following are the figures to date:

Miles improved by state	25
Miles of state auto	10
Miles improved by county	7
Miles contracted during year 1921	6
Miles of permanent improved roads in county	46

County bonds issued, $750,000—four tiles, state and ounty, 50-50 with cost; two miles to be advertised out of county bond money this year; one mile of road to be advertised out of county general fund this year; state will build four miles yet this year.

The Bradford and Smethport highway is expected to be entirely completed ready for travel by the middle of October. The Larrabee to Eldred stretch is completed and about a mile of road in Eldred borough is now under construction. The six-mile section from Kasson to Smethport of the Mt. Jewett-Smethport highway is progressing quite rapidly.

Next year's program will undoubtedly contain the letting of the contracts for the balance of the Mt. Jewett-Smethport route as well as the stretch between Larrabee and Port Allegany. The road through Potato Creek valley from East Smethport as a part of improved highway to Emporium may also be part of next year's activities.

POPULAR BRADFORD GIRL MARRIED AT MT. JEWETT.

Mt. Jewett, Sept. 7.—Miss Marie Nelson, of Bradford, and Mr. Everett Anderson, of this place, were united in marriage this morning at 8 o'clock at the M. E. parsonage by the Rev. D. O. May. The couple was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Anderson of Mt. Jewett.

Following the ceremony, the bridal party motored to Port Allegany, and continued by train to Buffalo. Mr. Anderson is employed at the Port Allegany postoffice, and Mrs. Anderson has a wide circle of friends here as well as in her home city of Bradford.

KUSHEQUA BRICK PLANT IS DESTROYED BY FIRE.

Kane, Sept. 8.—Fire totally destroyed the factory building of the Kushequa Brick Company at Kushequa, Tuesday night, of which Elisha K. Kane was the principal stockholder, and there was no insurance whatever upon the property. The fire started about 11 p. m., but was not discovered until it had made great headway, although three men were at work all night at the kilns and driers.

The storage sheds and office building escaped the flames, and of course the kilns and tunnel dryers were uninjured, but half of the shale tipple was consumed by the flames as well as the factory building completely destroyed. The power plant and engines therein are injured slightly.

NOW THE TUXEDO

When the sweater-coat began to grow luxurious and aristocratic it assumed a new name—it is now the Tuxedo. It is made in wool, fiber silk or silk, with much attention given to its design and finish. Here it is shown in silk, with self-stripe, bordered by a strip in contrasting stitch, finished by narrow fringe and belted with plaited girdle.

IN RED AND BLACK

The vogue for black has made such an impression on the world of fashion that designers of children's clothes have taken advantage of it in the production of new things for fall. It appears in this pretty dress with its waist of black taffeta silk and hand embroidered dots of red. The skirt is red and black Scotch plaid with a wide belt that folds over a narrow black sash of fire ribbon.

THE FAIR.

We welcome all our visitors this week, who are here attending the McKean County Fair.

At no time is interest in farming so greatly needed as just now when the unemployment of the cities could be reduced by an exodus back to the farm.

The large crowds in attendance indicate the deep interest in farming that is taken by the people of this county.

THE PROBLEM OF UNEMPLOYMENT.

It is said that there are more than six million unemployed in the United States: That statement must be accepted with reservations or explanations. Twice in the recent history of this country the unemployed have constituted a considerably larger percentage of the total population—in 1894 and in 1914. The number of unemployed in the country in 1894 was between three and four millions. The population of the United States was then nearly twenty millions less than it is today. But the percentage of potential wage earners in the total population is greater today than in 1894. This fact in no small part accounts for the exaggeration of unemployment that has come down to us as a heritage of the Wilson administration, under the operations of the same sort of tariff law that paralyzed American industry in 1894 and 1914.

We repeat: The solution of the problem of unemployment is to get the wheels turning again in American industries; the way to get those wheels going is to cease playing demagogical politics and to encourage rather than to discourage productive enterprise. The American people had real, not blood-bought or tax-bought prosperity by that process before Mr. Wilson turned on "the new freedom" and they can have it again by a return to sane, wholesome constructive policies based upon justice and reason rather than upon prejudice, malice and class selfishness.

Pass a tariff law safeguarding American industry promptly; lift from the shoulders of the American people and American productive industry every ounce of taxation not absolutely necessary; use the power of government to foster rather than fight business enterprise and 1922 can be made the most prosperous year in American industry, with unemployment the most terrible form of public taxation confined to those who do not wish to work.—National Republican.

THE WHIPPING POST FOR WIFE BEATERS.

To many the whipping post sounds like a relic of barbarism, but even the sentimentalist will agree that it was put to good use when it was used to punish a convicted wife beater in Baltimore. There are degrees in badness as well as goodness, but it is difficult to conceive of a more contemptible form of human depravity than the instinct which permits a man to use violence to a woman. The sentence against this particular offender was imposed by a judge in the criminal court and it was executed by the sheriff, who confesses that he performed his task with peculiar satisfaction. He even goes so far as to recommend public whippings of wife beaters in places where they may be witnessed by the people. Thus humiliation would be added to the physical punishment.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

"THE EMPIRE OF HATE."

The federal department of justice intends to make an inquiry into the plans and purpose of the semi-political, quasi- mysterious order of Klu Klux Klan, which in five years has grown from a nucleus of 34 charter members to more than 500,000, with "Klans" in every state in the union but Montana, Utah and New Hampshire. The fact that such an organization exists today, an organization which the New York World declares "preaches racial and religious hatred of the Jew and the Roman Catholic, of the negro and the foreign-born citizen," should be cause for concern on the part of the government. There is no place for it in this country—no place for this "the invisible empire," whose citizens attempt to practice censorship of private morals under the anonymity of the white sheet and the goblin mask. The methods of the Klu Klux Klan are absolutely unAmerican. The organization should be destroyed, root and branch by the federal authorities. It is a relic of the dark ages.—Buffalo Evening News.

BRADFORD STORE ENTERED AND THEN ROBBED

Bradford, Sept. 13.—The police are investigating the entrance of the McCrory five and ten cent store by persons with burglarious intent some time Sunday night or yesterday morning. The attempted robbery was discovered when the store was opened for business yesterday morning. The marauders are believed to have obtained nothing of value except $1.50 in change left in a drawer by one of the clerks, and possibly a few articles from the stock. The burglars failed to find $500 in three canvas bags concealed in the shop by the management.

The police have evidence that the intruders were a man and a boy, apparently thoroughly familiar with the premises, who gained entrance to the store in an ingenious manner. They apparently entered the Wagner building climbed the front stairs to the second floor, stepped out on the roof of Cohen's cash store, and then slid down a cast iron le to the ground. After reaching the ground, they cut a panel out of the rear door of the McCreary establishment. The boy then must have squirmed through the hole and unlocked the door from the inside, admitting the man. After thoroughly ransacking the store, the miscreants apparently made their get-away by the same route.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Editor Miner:

Please announce that I am a candidate for the position of road supervisor of Keating township, subject to the decision of the Republican primary, September 20, 1921.

Fred H. Nourse.

Smethport, Pa., Sept. 12, 1921.

SHERIFF'S SALES.

BY VIRTUE of sundry writs of Fieri Facias and Levari Facias issued out of the Court of Common Pleas of McKean County, Penna., and to me directed, I will expose at public sale at the Court House in the Borough of Smethport, McKean County, Pennsylvania, on Monday, October 3rd, 1921, at 1 o'clock P. M.,

Defendants' interests in all that certain lot of land situate in the Township of Foster, County of McKean and State of Pennsylvania, bounded and described as follows, to-wit:

Beginning at a point the easterly intersection of the Bradford and Smethport road, old and new survey; running thence easterly along the northerly line of the old survey two hundred fifty feet to a post; thence northerly two hundred feet to a post in the southeasterly line of the new survey for the Bradford and Smethport road and thence southwesterly along the southerly line of said new survey, two hundred fifty feet to the place of beginning.

The land hereby conveyed being a portion of the land described in deed from L. P. Drebelbis, guardian, et al, to George B. Wolfe, dated July 28, 1920, and by George B. Wolfe, single, conveyed to F. C. Corbett and S. F. Rumbaugh, parties of the first part herein, by deed dated August 3, 1920.

Improved and having thereon two one and one-half-story frame dwelling houses.

Seized and taken in execution and will be sold as the property of F. C. Corbett and S. F. Rumbaugh, defendants, with notice to A. M. Ostrander, trustee, terre tenant, at the suit of The H. C. Bemis Company, assignee of H. C. Bemis.

W. E. Burdick,
Plaintiff's Attorney.

Defendant's interest in all that certain piece, parcel or tract of land, situate lying and being in the Township of Keating, County of McKean and State of Pennsylvania, bounded and described as follows:

Beginning at a corner on the south bank of Cole Creek, being the northwest corner of lot No. 182 of the Bingham lands in the said Keating Township; thence along the west line of said lot No. 182 south 53.7 rods to the center of the road running from Farmers Valley to Bordell City; thence east along the center of said road 86.7 rods to a post corner in the east line of said lot No. 182; thence north 65.5 rods to a beech tree corner on the south bank of said Cole Creek; thence up said creek by its various courses and distances to the place of beginning, containing 31.9 acres of land, more or less, and being a part of lot No. 182 of the Bingham allotment of lands in Keating Township, and part of warrants Nos. 2078 and 2090.

Excepting and reserving all the coal, carbon, petroleum oil and natural gas, being in, under or upon the said premises, with the rights connected therewith, as mentioned in deed from D. C. Young and wife to W. E. Davis, dated October 15, 1908, and recorded in McKean County in Deed Book Vol. 150, at page 1, etc., but not excepting the right to damage to growing crops or the right to free gas for fuel and lights for one house vested in W. E. Davis, under the above mentioned deed.

The premises above conveyed being the same premises conveyed to W. E. Davis by D. C. Young and wife, as above, and by the said W. E. Davis to Peter Peterson and by said Peter Peterson conveyed back to said W. E. Davis by deed dated April 28, 1913, and recorded in McKean County records on May 9, 1913, in Deed Book Vol. 164, page 349, etc.

Also granting and conveying to W. E. Davis all rights to a certain spring of water and the right and privileges connected therewith, conveyed to W. E. Davis by Peter Peterson and wife by deed dated October 4, 1910, and recorded in McKean County in Deed Book Vol. 156, at page 39, etc.

And being the same premises granted and conveyed to Fred Bowman by W. E. Davis and wife by deed dated May 14, 1920, and recorded in Deed Book Vol. 181, page 499, McKean County records.

Improved and having thereon one two-story frame dwelling house, one small frame barn, one small frame building used as a garage and forty apple trees.

Seized, taken in execution and will be sold as the property of Fred Bowman at the suit of J. G. Carlson.

E. L. Keenan,
Plaintiff's Attorney.

WOMAN ON NEW YORK TICKET FOR COUNTY CLERK.

Olean, Sept. 12.—As a sort of first gun in the fall political campaign in Cattaraugus county, the name of Mrs. Ruth C. Lippert, of Hinsdale, is placed by the Democrats for the office of county clerk. Mrs. Lippert is well known throughout the country as a remarkably successful saleswoman, well educated and thoroughly up to date on public matters.

FOR YOUNG GIRLHOOD

There is nothing in headwear that outclasses the fine, soft beaver or felt hats made for children. Their beauty and refinement carry them triumphantly to every part of the world, and they are a safe choice from the first to the last hat for girlhood. Three of them are pictured here, and of course their only trimming is a sash or band of ribbon.

HATS THAT FLATTER

Hats are the finishing touch to the costume, and they make or mar its success. There is a hat, for every face, one that will enhance its good points and be kind to its faults. Three widely different models for fall and winter, as shown above, reveal that beads and embroidery are playing leading parts in trimmings and that shapes are soft and becoming.

FOX SCARFS POPULAR

Mary had a little lamb, but that was in the distant past. Now she has a little fox—for everywhere that Fashion goes the fox is sure to go. Fox scarfs have proved themselves the most beloved of furs, and they are universally worn. There is a considerable range of color in them and a very great range of prices. In any case, the fur is soft, silky and becoming.

RICHLY TRIMMED SUIT

Many suits for fall and winter are trimmed with embroidery and fur, and these rich embellishments are made the most of in the handsome model shown above. It is made of one of those cloths that have a suedelike surface and embroidered with narrow silk braid. The skirt is plain, but the coat is almost covered with embroidery.

FORMER LOUDON COUNTY FARMER PASSES AWAY.

Dr. W. T. Caller, of Woodbine, N. J., who has been in poor health for some time, died of heart disease at the George Washington Hospital on August 29th.

Dr. Caller was born in Kane, Pa., November 21, 1841. He was a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania Institute of Pharmacy. In 1892 he purchased the Summers farm, near Serlin, W. Va., and had been a resident of Loudon county until a year ago when he returned to New Jersey on account of ill health.

Surviving him are his wife, Orpha G. Caller; two daughters, Mrs. Alexander, of Randolph, N. Y., and Miss Eva Caller, of Woodbine, N. J., and a son, Vernon C. Caller, of Falls Church Va.

Masonic funeral services were held at Harper's Ferry, W. Va.

THE U.S. USCO TREAD

Here is the U. S. Usco Tread, with a long-established standard of service among motorists who have an eye to value, as well as to price. While selling for less than the other tires in the U. S. Fabric line, the Usco has earned a reputation for quality and dependable economy which is not exceeded by any tire in its class.

From the makers of U.S. Royal Cords to the users of Fabric Tires

"Giving to the fabric tire user fresh, live tires. Being made now. Being shipped now."

IN all of modern merchandising the biggest conundrum is the fabric tire situation.

Around 70% of all car owners use fabric tires.

Their instinct for quality is as strong and insistent as any one else's.

Why, then, are they offered such hodge-podge stocks of "discount tires," "odd lots," "seconds," "retreads" and other so-called bargains of uncertain origin?

* * *

Sooner or later the public always seeks out quality. As a matter of self-protection—if for no other reason. The out-and-out opinion in favor of U. S. Fabric Tires has spread more this year than it ever did.

People have gotten very close to the U. S. policy. Felt it. Benefited by it. And passed the word along.

It's a policy settled to one standard for all U. S. Tires. Whether fabrics or cords. Small sizes or large.

Giving to the fabric tire user fresh, live tires. Being made now. Being shipped now.

* * *

"Usco," "Chain," "Nobby." Three different treads.

Built by the same brains, the same policy, the same quality ideals that have made U. S. Royal Cords the standard measure of tire worth.

Durable

Life-long roof service under exacting conditions, life-long weather protection, life-long attractiveness and life-long fire-resistance—such is the service of the Vulcanite Hexagon Slab Shingle.

For it is made from tough fibrous felt thoroughly saturated with asphalt—making it waterproof and durable. It is surfaced with crushed slate, either in a slate green or deep red color—making it attractive and fire-resisting.

LETTER SENT TO PROSPECTIVE ELECTRICITY BACKERS

Safe Investment Open to Everybodi Who Would Like to Help The Town

A letter which clearly illustrates the electrical situation in Smethport, and urges citizens to loan freely to the town so that we may be brought out of "darkness and decay into the true light of electricity and prosperity" has been sent out by the officials of the trunk line company now forming.

The missive is as follows:

Smethport, Sept. 12, 1921.

"Dear Sir:—'Now' is the time for all good men to come to the aid of 'electricity for Smtehport.'

"There never was and never again will be such propitious conditions.

"Just think of it—77 against and 497 in favor of a $38,000.00 bond issue. The county commissioners have agreed to buy $15,000.00 worth of juice and pay for it in advance, without any interest—material and supplies at rock bottom and common labor coming down fast.

"Pennsylvania has 67 county seats, and 66 have electricity. You gave for the big war 'till it hurt.' This is a new war—a war to bring Smethport from darkness and decay into the true light of electricity and prosperity; so loan 'till it hurts.' You are not asked to give, as you will note by the enclosed proposition, which is so drawn that it absolutely protects and assures you beyond all reasonable doubt that every dollar you loan, plus 6 per cent interest, will be returned within 21 years from date."

REV. PANG TO STAY HERE ANOTHER YEAR.

Rev. A. L. Pang, of the Farmers Valley circuit of the Church of the United Brethren in Christ, who attended the annual conference of the church at Jamestown, returned home and decided to remain with his flock another year.

Insistent entreaty on the part of his parishoners brought him to this decision, although he had intended to attend school during the year.

Last Sunday, Rev. Pang occupied the pulpits of each of the churches at Coryville, Farmers Valley and East Smethport. His theme was "Positiveness in Christian Faith."

Beginning next Sunday, services in the East Smethport Church will begin a half an hour earlier. The schedule as follows; Sunday school at 11 a. m., Junior Christian Endeavor, 12 m.; Senior Christian Endeavor, 6:45 p. m.; preaching, 7:30 p. m. Mid-week services on Thursday at 7:30 p. m.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Harvest Festival services will be held Sunday, September 18. Morning worship, 10:30, subject of sermon, "The Harvest of Light;" evening worship, 7:30, subject, "A Straight Furrow." Special music at both sefvices. A committee will be at the church Saturday afternoon and evening to receive gifts of fruit, vegetables, flowers, etc. Sunday school, 11:45 a. m.; Junior League, 3:00 p. m.
